

Special Briefing & Roundtable on the Australia-European Union Free Trade Agreement by Chief Negotiator Alison Burrows followed by a Drinks Reception hosted by the Australian Ambassador to the European Union, Belgium, Luxembourg and NATO, HE Mr Justin Brown PSM.

Thursday 4 July 2019
16:00 - 19:00 Australian Embassy, Brussels

Australian Business in Europe (ABIE) in association with the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade invite you to this special briefing. Australia's lead negotiator, Alison Burrows, will speak on the current status of the negotiations and the Australian Ambassador to the European Union will discuss the recent European elections and efforts undertaken to involve stakeholders around Europe in the FTA process.

Participants will have the chance to engage the speakers on the opportunities and challenges facing export-oriented businesses and investors from multinationals to SMEs, and to register concerns that an FTA could potentially address to facilitate business between the two regions. The roundtable will be followed by a networking drinks reception.

Please note that the venue capacity is limited.
RSVP by Monday 17 June via your local ABIE.
Open to all ABIE members in Europe.
Cost: €30.00
